

MARIN SYMPHONY YOUTH

ANN KRINITSKY | MUSIC DIRECTOR

OVERTURE

CRESCENDO

MSYO

Marin Symphony's 68th Youth Orchestra Season 2022-2023 Auditions Now Open AUG 27 & 28 and SEPT 3 & 4, 2022

Are you looking to expand your experience as a classical musician?
Do you want to play great music with other talented young musicians?
The Marin Symphony Youth Programs might be just the place for you!

Age and experience guidelines:

MARIN SYMPHONY YOUTH ORCHESTRA

Ann Krinitsky, music director • Ages 12-18, three or more years of study*

CRESCENDO ORCHESTRA

Anne Lerner-Wright, music director • Ages 10-17, two or more years of study*

OVERTURE STRING ENSEMBLE

Anne Lerner-Wright, music director • Ages 8-13, at least one year of study*

*Participants must study privately with a teacher on your orchestral instrument.

NOTE: COVID-19 Vaccination Required for All Players

Marin Symphony Youth Programs auditions over 150 talented students from over 20 Marin County and Bay Area Schools each Fall. Recent season highlights include:

- Side-by-side Performances with the Marin Symphony
- Fall and Spring Concerts
- Sectional coaches with Guest Symphony Musicians
- Recording Sessions at Skywalker Sound
- Masterclasses and Concerto Competition
- International Tours

Financial assistance available

Register online now

Auditions are by appointment only.

Visit our website for information about our Youth Programs and Auditions:

marinsymphony.org/youth/youth-program-audition-requirements

Questions? Contact Andrei Gorchov: andrei@marinsymphony.org